STATE POLICE BILL AND STATE CEMENT PLANTS DISCUSSED

Resolution Introduced Asking Committee to Investigate Proposed State Police Bill Because of "Variety of Opinion"—Appropriations Asked for State Cement Plants

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 6.—A senate joint resolution asking for the appointment of an investigating committee to delve into all matters relating to the proposed state police bill was presented to the senate in a session tonight by Senator Harry G. Wright of Dekalb. Two bills from Senator Richard R. Meents of Askum, appropriating a total of $8,000,000 for construction of a state owned cement plant, and for maintenance of state roads, were also introduced.

The first Meents bill provides for a $5,000,000 appropriation to be used in the purchase of a site and the erection of a state cement plant. This bill, together with its companion, were before the last two sessions of the general assembly but never were acted upon. C committee is expected to make a report in the near future on their observations affecting the two projects, while a report from a committee at the state university will also be received advising upon the merits of such action. No recommendations were made in either bill for the site of the cement plant in the event the bill is disposed of favorably.

ABSORPTION OF BRITISH LABOR PROPOSED HERE

New Solution for Payment of British Debt Offered

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—An Anglo-American commercial arrangement whereby America would absorb 1,000,000 surplus skilled British workers and under which production of commodities would be apportioned between the two nations, was proposed as a solution of the British debt problem by Sir Charles Higham vice president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in an address today.

"England," he said, "can never pay her debt to this country in gold, since more than half the gold in the world is in this country where it lies in banks, molding, not working."

Solution of the debt problem, Sir Charles declared, would lie in a conference of business men of England and America to decide what goods England might make and what goods America was best fitted to produce.

America might let England make textiles and America could make the automobiles, mechanical devices and office appliances England needs.

Sir Charles declared there was room for surplus British workers in American industries. One million skilled and farm workers should be brought to this country where they might become producers, he said.

CHARGED WITH PASSING COUNTERFEIT SILVER

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 6.—A federal warrant charging Walter O'Malley, 35, a coal miner, with possessing and passing counterfeit silver dollars was issued today by United States Commissioner Prizzel after O'Malley had been arrested on charge of intoxication.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Demand that pipeline companies be made common carriers in fact as well as in name, was presented to the senate oil investigating committee today by half a dozen independent oil refiners. The witnesses represented refineries in Kansas, Kentucky, Indiana, Texas and Pennsylvania and all made the complaint that although pipeline companies were made common carriers by act of congress in 1906, the larger pipeline companies at no time have furnished the service to independent producers and refiners that is generally expected of free and open transportation companies.

Although the Philippine lines have been classed as common carriers for years, Benjamin F. Brundage, of the Brundage Oil Corporation of Oil City, Pa., one of the witnesses declared, "it is to be noticed the pipeline companies have studiously avoided business from small independents rather than sought it."

PLANS COMPLETE FOR RETURN OF ALIEN PROPERTY

Prohibit Returns to Bergdoll or Other Draft Evaders

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The administration measure proposing return of many millions of dollars worth of enemy alien property seized during the war was formally approved today by the house interstate commerce committee after it had been amended in many important particulars. Aside from the original proposal for the return of as much as $10,000,000 of each trust fund held by the alien property custodian the measure carries the general provisions:

Payment to the original owners of all income from trusts administered by the custodian. Return to the original owners, other than once enemy aliens of their stock in corporations, companies, partnerships and associations in such cases where a majority of the stock was owned at the time of seizure by other than enemy aliens.

The Return of Patents. Restoration to the original owners of all patents seized and not now in litigation and not sold to or licensed by the war or navy departments.

Prohibition against the return of any part of the property of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, escaped draft evader, or other persons fugitives from justice of the United States or any individual state.

Under the $10,000,000 return provision, Colonel Thomas Miller, the custodian, estimates that approximately 28,000 trusts of less than that amount in total value would be completely liquidated and that $10,000 would be paid out of each 2,000 trusts aggregating more than the $10,000 limitation.

The Amount Held. This provision would permit the custodian to turn back out right about $44,000,000 of the approximately $350,000,000 of property now held by him. This property would leave around $300,000,000 to guarantee payments of American claims against Germany in addition to the $200,000,000 worth of the once German owned ships which the American government now holds.

Colonel Miller estimates that the payment to the owners of the income from trusts would turn back from $6,000,000 to $7,000,000 annually. Since the seizure of the property this income has been held by the custodian or the treasury.

Under the stock provision part of the stock of many corporations now held by the government would be returned to the owners. The interstate commerce plans to report the bill to the house within a day or two and Chairman Winslow will ask for early action. It is understood that the administration will ask for its passage in the senate before the end of this session.

Asks Waterway Report. Senator Swift, in a senate resolution called for the report of the six commissions appointed in the 52nd general assembly, the deep-waterway commission, Illinois building investigating committee, Illinois educational commission, interstate harbor commission of Illinois and Indiana and the mining and investigating commission. He asks each body to file a report within 30 days concerning their activities.

A petition from the supervisors of Winnebago county (Rockford) asks that the laws governing the tax assessors be amended so that counties of 50,000 or more population will have a permanent full time tax assessor.

Wants Increase Salary. It is stated in the petition that the present tax successor gets a salary of $1,000 a year and that is not sufficient to cover the duties he is charged with nor to cause him to devote full time to the work, resulting the petition claims in many faulty assessments as well as in much property escaping assessment.

DRY AGENTS AND BOOTLEGGERS IN TERRIFIC BATTLE

Fight in Driving Snow Storm for Three Hours

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—A battle between fifteen prohibition enforcement agents and a score of alleged bootleggers took place today in a driving snow storm in Prince George's county, near Walnut, Maryland, and raged for three hours when the bootleggers were said to have run out of ammunition and escaped in the woods. One man who refused to give his name to the authorities before he lapsed into unconsciousness, was brought to a hospital here and was said to be in a serious condition with a bullet in his head.

He is between 20 and 25 years of age.

Searching For Stills. The prohibition agents, it was said, were in search of stills and other apparatus for manufacturing intoxicants and were armed with riot guns and 45-calibre revolvers. Their opponents also were said to be well armed and the battle took place in fields, the maneuvering covering a mile of territory.

The officers encountered stiff opposition reinforced before long it was declared by reinforcements the alleged bootleggers had summoned, armed with sawed-off shotguns. More than 100 shots were exchanged, it was said.

The raid, directed against two of the largest known stills in Maryland, were said to be a sequel to the wholesale raids made in the capital last week when a considerable amount of liquor was seized and numerous arrests made. Although prisoners were said to have been captured except the wounded man the raid yielded a vast quantity of roofs.

Secure Much Evidence. After the smoke of the battle had cleared the revenue agents reported that they confiscated a 1,600 gallon still run by a 30 horse power 300 pound pressure steam boiler, a 500 gallon triple condenser and a 200 gallon double tubes containing 25 gallons of corn whiskey as well as 75 cases of the whiskey ready for shipment. One hundred yards away an eight room house was found to have one room filled with corn whiskey estimated at 1,000 gallons ready for shipment. A half mile away was the other plant where were found two 300 gallon stills, 250 gallons of whiskey. More than 25 cases of such liquor also was found nearby as well as 51 mash boxes containing 31,400 gallons of mash. All of this was destroyed.

How Fight Progressed. The revenue officers were forced to quit their near the objective because the stills were one mile from any road. The officers separated into two groups to approach both places simultaneously but when a half mile distant outposts gave the alarm. The alleged bootleggers retreated slowly; deploying as they did so and the shooting began when the revenue agents were within 100 yards of the stills.

LET GEORGE DO IT
By Berton Braley

LET George do it! You've heard the phrase
Twisted around in a thousand ways:
Meaning, "The job is not for me,
I haven't time, or I cannot see
The sense or reason in what you plan,
So let George do it, for he's your man!"
And George does it—he doesn't stall
Or shirk and dodge it or whine and crawl.
You can rely
On George, that guy
Is there to do it—and do it all!

AND who is George? He's the goof absurd,
The easy mark and the patient bird.
Who thinks that duty is not a whim,
But something worthy of strength and vim!
And the wise men, too wise to drudge,
Say "Let George do it"—and never budge.
And George does it. He doesn't say,
"Oh, I'm too busy to work today!"
Believe me, bo,
Old George will go
And do that job in the proper way!

YES, George does it, the poor old dunce,
Till the wise boys find out all at once.
That George, the willing and eager chump
Is giving the orders around the dump.
"Let George do it," was what they said,
And George did it, and forged ahead!
"Let George do it"—but say, old scout,
Don't be too cocky when he's about,
But use your knob
Upon the job,
Or George will do it—and throw you out!

WINCHESTER FUNERAL WAS IMPRESSIVE ONE

Late Mrs. Martha A. Kirkman Laid to Rest Sunday Afternoon—Winchester News Notes.

Winchester, Feb. 6.—The funeral services in memory of the late Mrs. Martha A. Kirkman were held from the family home Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. F. B. Elmore, pastor of the Christian church. There was a large assembly of friends and relatives to pay a last tribute of love and honor to one who will be greatly missed in the community.

A quartet composed of Miss Riggs, Mrs. Ada Lankford, C. W. Smith and G. W. Owens furnished music for the solemn occasion. The flowers were in unusual profusion and were cared for by the girl neighbors of the deceased, who were her special friends. They were Misses Julia and Dorothy Hankins, Ida Waggener, Irene Nelson, Loretta Lashmet and Mrs. George Wallace.

Burial was made in the Winchester cemetery the pall bearers being Chris Munze, Albert Hains, further, George Stewart, Peter Gaudes, Karl Miller and George Lonnacker.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. L. H. Strang, of Roodhouse; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strang, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lashmet, East Prairie, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stahl, Elkhart; Thomas Johnson, Logansport, Ind.; Mrs. Morton Van Houten, Jacksonville; Mrs. Thomas Williams and Mrs. James P. Williams, Pekin; Mrs. Alonzo Ellis, White Hall. Owing to illness Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Greiner and children of Galesburg, were unable to attend the funeral.

Obituary Sketch.
Mrs. Martha A. Kirkman was born at Vandalia, Ill., April 8, 1836, and died at her home in this city Friday evening, February 2, after only a week's illness aged 86 years, 9 months and 25 days.

The decedent was married to David J. Kirkman of Winchester on March 16, 1854, and to this union were born ten children, three dying in infancy, and Ella May, Elva and Henry, dying after reaching the age of maturity.

The surviving children are Dovie, wife of John Lashmet Winchester; Clara, wife of L. H. Strang, of Roodhouse; Harry D. Thomas P. both of Winchester. There are eight grand children: Mrs. Lloyd Greiner of Galesburg; Thomas Lashmet of East Prairie, Mo.; Harry Strang of Kansas City; Mrs. Eddie Dawson, Ella May Lashmet, David Kirkman and Lucille and John Strang, of Roodhouse. There are also six great grand children, Ella May and Erlene Ann, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Greiner of Galesburg. Mr. Kirkman passed away July 16, 1886.

"Grandma" Kirkman as she was affectionately called by friends, was a woman whose life might be likened to a rock in the weary land. She was a comfort and shelter to those about her and after her own family was grown she assumed the care of the three little ones left hapless by her daughter's death, and lived to see them settled in life.

Her special delight was the youngest, Ella May, and in her she renewed her own youth, living her life over again in the experiences of the young girl, to whom she was a beloved confidant and adviser.

News Notes.
Murrell Poor of Quincy was a business visitor in Winchester Tuesday.

The second presentation of "Smilin' Thru," was witnessed by a large crowd at the Lyric Tuesday night. There were special numbers by an orchestra and Miss Jen Stewart sang a solo, "Smilin' Thru" which was especially appreciated by the audience. Word was received by friends in Winchester Monday, announcing the death of William H. McCartney of Webster Grove, Mo. He was a grocery salesman and had for years made regular trips to Winchester for many years and had many friends here. He was known by his genial smile and cordial greeting to all who knew him, and will be greatly missed by the local grocers and his numerous other friends here.

Reports Presented to Auto Deal-

Interest in Coming Event.

The Jacksonville Automotive
Dealers Association held a special meeting at the Dunlap last night at which the entire membership was present.
At this meeting all of the space available at the Auto Inn for the use of dealers during the coming auto show and merchants exposition was taken with the exception of eight booths. The remaining space probably will be taken in a day or two by local dealers not at present members of the association or by dealers from outside the city who have signified their intention of exhibiting in Jacksonville this year.

A number of local merchants have signed for space and the outlook at this time is most promising for one of the best shows yet held here, and one that will bring thousands of people to the city as the event will be thoroughly advertised by the association.

During the four day show held at the Cherry garage more than 25,000 people passed thru the entrance and at the last show more than 35,000 people attended. So it will be seen that an excellent opportunity is afforded for business men of all lines to get their merchandise before a large number of people for little expense.
Early reservation of space means that a certain number will be disappointed unless early action is taken. Messrs. Straun, Berger and Claus have the floor plans and selling of space in charge and are calling on business men as rapidly as possible, but it would be well to phone and ask them to call.

There will be many new features in connection with the show this year in the way of betterments in lighting and decorations
little to be desired.

Previous to the business session the dealers sat down to a six o'clock dinner served in the ordinary of the Dunlap hotel.

PREPARING BOOKS FOR ASSESSMENT WORK

County Clerk G. L. Riggs and his assistants are now busy in the preparation of tax collectors books for the use of County Treasurer Weatherford. Under the law real estate must be reassessed every four years and for this work it is necessary to prepare two books for each township and two for Jacksonville.

The names of property owners and the description of the property must be listed. This extensive work will mean a period of several busy weeks in the county clerk's office.

TY COBB RANKS AS OLDEST PLAYER

By NEA Service.
Detroit.—Ty Cobb is the oldest player in the American League in point of service.

Cobb joined the Tigers in 1905 and is still going good. He has seen 18 years of service. Despite the strenuous game he plays, he has slowed down but little.

If Cobb continues to be a success as manager he can go on indefinitely in baseball, long after he is thru as a player.

Cobb alone remains of the players who were in the American League at the time of his debut.
He has seen them all pass out.
Eddie Collins and Walter Johnson are close behind Cobb in point of service. While Johnson is slowing up a bit, Eddie Collins seemed as good as ever last season, with a number of years ahead of him in the majors.

SCHUPP PROVES COSTLY PITCHER

Pitcher Ferdie Schupp, who has had most unusual career in baseball, having played in both majors and several of the leading minors, bobs up once more in a new role.

Last year the Chicago White Sox secured Pitcher Mack from the Seattle club. Ferdie Schupp's inability to control the ball caused Kid Gleason to lose faith in him and he was sent to Seattle in part payment for Mack.

Report has it that Jim Boldt,
the owners of the Seattle club, paid Schupp $1,000 for his services. In return for the thousand bucks, Schupp went out and lost seven straight ball games.

Some costly investment for Seattle.

BRIDGE DYNAMITING DETAILS TOLD IN TRIAL

Walter Young of Roodhouse
Names Five as Co-Conspirators
In Plotting Destruction of Railroad Property.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 6.—
A complete confession of the plot which resulted in the dynamiting of the Apple Creek and Drake bridges of the Chicago and Alton railroad near Roodhouse, August 27, 1922, was made in the federal court here this morning by Walter Young of Roodhouse, who in telling of his part in the plot named Ed Taylor, Patrick Hanrahan, Jacob Sink, Ed Whitehead and A.
B. Tucker, also of Roodhouse as co-conspirators.

The five men named by Young are defendants with him, and were identified from the witness stand with him. Fred Geyer, who has not been taken, and who has been a fugitive for weeks, was mentioned as ring leader.

Young told that the striking railroad men communicated their intent to blow up the bridges, when they applied to him for powder and fuses, which were sold at the Young's store. He told that he took the plotters to the bridges in his automobile and that the automobile was fired up on returning to Roodhouse.

Trial of the case against the alleged conspirators will take all today and will be continued tomorrow.

Billy Evans Says

I have often been asked if it isn't far more difficult to umpire balls and strikes when some star pitcher is working than a couple of average twirlers doing the hurling.

The imperative prevails that it is much more difficult to judge the curves and speed of the truly great pitchers. The fact that the star pitchers are usually very troublesome to the batter creates the belief that they are equally severe on the umpire.

It may occasion some surprise when I say that a majority of the great pitchers or the game are easy to umpire. I can offer any number of arguments to substantiate such a statement.

First: Most of the great pitchers have such confidence in their ability that a miscue on the part of the umpire doesn't mean a thing to them. Miss a perfect strike on some star and ninety-nine times out of a hundred he will pass it unnoticed. Miss a strike on some ordinary twirler and he will in all probability let the world know it.

Second: Practically every great pitcher has good control. Good control means much less work for the umpire. The star pitcher invariably has the batter in the hole, forcing him to hit. The ordinary pitcher, who is constantly working on the batsman in an effort to make him hit a ball, is usually in the hole. The batter is working on him. That means trouble for the umpire.

Third: Batters as a rule do not seem quite as fussy when some star is pitching as with the ordinary twirler. They seem to take it for granted that the star should be able to fool them, but they question the right of some "busher" to get a strike past them.

It is just like a day off when called upon to work for pitchers of the Mathewson, Johnson, Brown, Bender type. On the other hand, if you draw some "busher" who is wild, thereby constantly in the hole, you have a day's work ahead of you. Likewise, if you get some "crabby" veteran, whose stuff is fast fading, and who is hanging on because of his old head rather than his good old arm, you are a busy person.

There are some star pitchers who make plenty of work. For instance, if Stanley Coveleskie is pitching for Cleveland and Urban Shocker for St. Louis, the umpire is set for a tough day.

Coveleskie starts with a spitball and finishes with one, to use the words of the rest of the American League. Coveleskie has a varied

Jewett is the stoutest car of its size. It weighs 200 pounds more than any other car in its class. This Sedan body has steel panels all 'round—no wall-board-and-fabric makeshift. It is built to ruggedly match the long life of the chassis. The Jewett has a staunchness and dependability never before built into a car of this size—full six-inch frame, rigidly braced; stout Paige-Timken axles; long resilient springs, and sturdy wheels.

You have heard what a masterful performer the Jewett Six is. No car of its size equals Jewett in horsepower. No car within $200 has so much power for its weight. That means snappy performance.

Jewett accelerates from 5 to 25 miles per hour in 7 seconds. Try it with any other car! In traffic, go two miles per hour in high. On the smooth stretch ahead, go sixty. Either is an everyday Jewett pace.

The Jewett motor is high-pressure oiled. A gallon of oil every 46 seconds is forced to all main and connecting-rod bearings at 15 miles per hour. Metal never rubs metal—films of oil defeat friction at every point. Long life, silence, and freedom from the penalties of wear, are assured.

Coupled with this superabundant power, Jewett gives you a degree of driving ease truly delightful. A new clutch and transmission, the smoothest you have ever tried, allow you to shift gears fast as hand can travel. No pause, no clash. And you can drop from high to second at 30 miles per hour! Such perfect mastery of a car was never before possible to the inexperienced.

How pleasantly this Jewett Sedan rides! Relax against the fine, deep, soft, well-shaped seats, and feel this car's comfort. Note the ample space for five; the wealth of closed-car appointments. The Paige-built Jewett is the only moderate-priced six built by a maker of high-grade sixes—today's leader in value!

CONSIDERATION OF APPROPRIATIONS OCCUPIES SENATE

Find Hard Sledding to Conform to Budget Estimates

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Consideration of the rivers and harbors provisions of the annual army appropriation bill occupied the senate six hours today and was still under discussion when recess was taken.

Acceptance by the senate committee of an increase of more than 100 per cent in the item over the budget bureau's estimate was attacked by several senators as embodying a death blow to the whole budget theory and was defended by others as an effort to provide sufficient funds for army engineers to carry out carefully considered projects already approved by congress. The senate defeated an amendment offered by Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota which would have set aside $250,000 from the lump appropriation of $56,589,910 for improvement work on the Missouri river between Sioux City, Iowa, and Fort Benton, Montana.

Amendment Opposed.
Senator Lenroot, Republican, of Wisconsin, newly appointed assistant floor leader declared the amendment meant a revision of the established policy of lump sum appropriation and added that if adopted the senate might as well go a step further and repeal the budget law.

He was joined by Senator Wadsworth, Republican, of New York, also assistant leader and chairman of the sub-committee which reported the bill.

Mr. Wadsworth, opposing the attempt to make specific appropriations for individual projects declared he was also entirely against the increase in the lump appropriation and as strongly in opposition to it being attached at all to the army bill.

He declared that as a result of the substantial cuts which had been made in purely military items, the United States army has ceased to exist as such.

Army and Navy Needs.
"We can not today mobilize

40,000 men," he said, "and the maintenance or army activities as contemplated the national defense act is impossible."

Mr. Wadsworth recalled that the army estimates last year suffered the "most severe slash in history." Notwithstanding this, he said material cuts were made again this year, "perhaps with the idea that thus a substantial increase could be made in the rivers and harbors item without too far exceeding the budget figures."

Senator Caraway, Democrat, of Arkansas, declared the lump sum idea never was and never would be workable.

Senator Ransdell, Democrat, of Louisiana, also defended the increase as constituting the first effort by the government to provide adequately for the projects it had ordered the engineers to carry out.

Harbors and Rivers.
The records showed that harbors always have been numerous provided for while rivers have been stunted, he said.

"Harbors are the natural terminals of railroads, rivers are their competitors. Draw your own conclusions."

GERMANS COUNTED ON SUPPORT OF ENGLAND

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Germany would not have dared to pursue the reparations payment course which led to the Ruhr occupation by the French had not the Germans counted on the support of England, Frank D. Pavey, general vice president of the federation of the French alliance in the United States and Canada declared tonight. He spoke at the anniversary meeting celebrating the signature of the original treaty between France and the American colonies.

Mr. Pavey called upon the United States to support France in the defense of her economic life in the struggle against German swindlers and their English associates.

"The real struggle in Europe," he said, "is not between France and Germany, but between England and France."

PROPOSE GRADUATED TAX ON EARNINGS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—A graduated tax on undistributed corporation earnings ranging from 5 to 20 per cent and retroactive to include the year 1917, was proposed in a bill introduced today by Representative Fear, Republican, Wisconsin. All undistributed profits of more than $200,000 would be taxed the maximum of 20 per cent.

CONFERENCE DOOR IN THE NEAR EAST YET STANDS AJAR

Turk Pasha May Change His Mind and Fail to Enter

(By The Associated Press)

LAUSANNE, Feb. 7.—1:30 A. M. Wednesday.—Ismet Pasha will leave here for Angora at 6 o'clock this morning.

LAUSANNE, Feb. 7.—All mediation has definitely failed. Turkey will not sign the allied treaty at the present time even with the latest concessions proposed and within a few hours Ismet Pasha will leave for Angora to consult with his government.

So far as its object was to conclude a speedy peace the Near East conference has failed. Count Mas-sigli, secretary-general, in behalf of the powers urged Ismet Pasha to remain and continue the negotiations. He also asked for a clear statement of the points Turkey insisted upon in the treaty.

Ismet replied that the next move was up to the allies for Turkey stood by her note of February 4, namely, that she would sign now about 80 per cent of the clauses of the treaty but desired that the others including the financial and economic clauses should be postponed for later negotiation. Ismet added that he needed to consult with his own government but was ready to resume the negotiations when the allies suggested. As the conference had not officially broken down the armistice would continue and he promised to do everything possible to prevent an outbreak of hostilities.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—There is strong hope in Paris that the peace treaty with the Turks will be signed within a few days or weeks. Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation at Lausanne is reported to be of a receptive mood.

Nevertheless it appears to be a race with the clock for the moment as Ismet has his baggage packed ready to start for Angora in the morning.

Premier Poincare's message to London, announcing that Ismet Pasha now was disposed to sign has not been answered and the officers of the foreign office remained there late tonight awaiting word from the British government. If that word is favorable an urgent request will be forwarded to Ismet that he stay in Lausanne a little longer or come to Paris and sign the treaty.

French Optimistic.
Ismet, according to the French, is ready to attach his signature to a treaty embodying all subjects settled in the conference or committed in the early hours of Sunday, when as one Frenchman put it, Ismet was so disturbed by listening for the whistle of Curzon's departing train that he did not realize exactly what was happening.

Another French comment was: "The conference door is not closed; it is ajar."

Lord Curzon's statement in London that he thought the treaty would be signed in a few days has served to strengthen French confidence but late tonight neither London nor Paris had announced any move to hold Ismet at Lausanne.

It is believed that even if Ismet leaves the treaty can be concluded either thru diplomatic channels or by resumption of the conference.

The question as to who was responsible for the breaking up of the conference is still a subject of debate each of the powers proving apparently to its own satisfaction that someone else was guilty.

British Blamed.
Lord Curzon is generally credited with having stung the difference with the Turks so that the points in which the French are particularly interested would be the last obstacles to overcome.

Ismet, it is remarked, stood firm on the clauses affecting France in the belief that the French would give way rather than take the responsibility for blocking peace. Ismet in this way expected to gain a few additional concessions worth gambling for, but not vital enough to discourage the allies.

LEGISLATURE GETS DOW TO BUSINESS

ing committee of any party in a county to name candidates for county offices at a special election was called for second reading. Senator Essington, said that inasmuch as Senator Hanson was not present and that no one knew the purpose of the bill that it was best to hold it until Hanson returned and explained it. He said he believed the bill would deprive citizens of their legal right to file for office and until it was fully explained thru it should be held.

Bonus Tax Exemption.
Senator Telford sent in a bill exempting state bonus from taxation. Senator Carlson presented a duplicate of the house bill calling for the $50,000 appropriation for the attorney general to investigate vice-conditions in Rock Island.

Senator Bailey, Georgia, introduced the "anti gun toting" bill of the Chicago Citizens' committee in the senate. The same bill appeared in the house today coming from Representative Igce.

The entire law on the subject of Child Birth Registrations would be amended in a bill presented by Senator Epler Mills, Virginia. The bill would make registration of births and deaths with the county clerk, who would send a copy to the state department of public health. The registration formerly was required to be made with township clerk.

Both houses will hold brief sessions tomorrow morning and will then leave for Urbana to visit the University of Illinois.

With the Queen Incubator

Everyone wants big hatches, and the Queen will deliver them. Besides being wonderfully well constructed, in the way of materials and workmanship, the Queen embodies the most scientific principles of artificial incubation.

The Queen is doubly insulated. First there are double walls of California Redwood, forming a dead air space. Second, corrugated strawboard is used between the wooden walls. Proper insulation adds considerable expense to the manufacturing cost, but it is an absolute requirement of a good incubator.

The Queen is the only incubator that carries out the double Redwood wall construction all around, and provides a double wall front, in the way of two separate doors. The outer door is a solid panel of Redwood that is hinged entirely independent of the inner door and is fastened with a snap lock that draws it tight, thus making the loss of heat impossible.

The inner door is also of Redwood construction, containing a panel of glass the full length and height of the egg chamber.

MR. HURST SEES NO FUTURE FOR C. P. & ST. L.

Manager of Road Declares Property Will Not Pay Even If Rehabilitated.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 6.—W. C. Hurst, general manager of the C. P. and St. L. railroad, created a sensation at the hearing before the Interstate Commerce commissioner on the petition to abandon the road, when he declared that the road could never make a return sufficient to meet a $2,000,000 investment, even if that entire $2,000,000 were invested to rehabilitate the road, and not a direct result of a question propounded by Examiner J. F. Gray of the Interstate Commerce commission, who is conducting the hearing.

At the hearing Jacksonville was represented by Attorney J. J. Reese, A. R. Eyre and H. C. Welch, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

In an effort to find out if there is any solution to the tangle presented by the road's present inability to meet operating expenses, Mr. Gray had asked Mr. Hurst what patrons of the road, if they should find it feasible to adopt a scheme, could afford to pay for rehabilitation of the lines, and how much additional they could afford to pay for the road as a going concern in its present condition.

Mr. Hurst replied that it would be necessary to spend $1,750,000 on putting the line in satisfactory shape to operate, and that an additional $250,000 would be necessary as preliminary operating capital. In reply to the question as to how much more than that anyone could afford to pay for the present line as a going concern, Mr. Hurst said "nothing."

Sees No Chance

Asked whether the road could then make money on that investment, Mr. Hurst replied that it could not. He amplified his statement by saying, "It would perhaps be possible to show a return for a year or so, if we had a million and three quarters dollars of new equipment and repairs spent now, but eventually, we could not make enough money to pay a return on that investment alone. It would not be possible for patrons or anyone to pay a cent for the property and expect to make a return on the investment."

He expressed the belief that if the present business of the road were doubled, it could not operate and pay a dividend on a $2,000,000 capitalization.

It was declared by Mr. Hurst that in 1917, it cost 22.6 cents an hour for labor and that the average earnings on freight was 59 cents a ton (freight being approximately 85 per cent of the railroad's business). In 1922, the comparatively cost of labor had gone up to 86 cents an hour, three times as much as in 1917, and the average income from freight was increased to but 85 cents a ton. This statement was made in reference to his declaration that if the ratio of 1917 might be brought back, the road could make money on a fair investment.

That the statement of the manager of the railroad would seriously affect the future course of action of the patrons in the present hearing was evident when questions were fired at Mr. Hurst to get him to show why a comparatively new road with only $2,000,000 as investment upon which to pay interest and principle, could not prove successful. These questions were based on the assumption, as made by Mr. Hurst, that nothing be paid for the road or to the bondholders, and that nothing be paid on receiver's notes or outstanding obligations of the road.

Suggest Operation Cuts
Attempts were made to show that a large saving in the cost of freight car rentals, set at over $200,000 during the past year would be effected by the fact that new freight cars or equipment in proper shape would eliminate this item of expense. Other items of operation which are now made necessary due to poor equipment it is contended by those opposing the abandonment proceedings at the hearing, would be eliminated. Patrons of the line were also present to contend that if the road had satisfactory equipment and could handle the business, a greater volume would be forthcoming, meaning increased gross income of the company and a comparative reduction in gross overhead expense.

Examiner Gray of the commission then read an abstract of the evidence on file with the commission, presented by the railroad at its own volition, and at the request of the commission and also received from towns, cities, along the route, of industries and individuals and of groups of industries and from organizations, protesting against the abandonment of the road and showing the huge loss to industrial, agricultural and community life by the proposed abandonment of the lines.

Smith Takes Part
Frank I. Smith, chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission took part in the proceedings on several occasions, stating that the responsibility for the future conduct of the railroad, if at all, rested not alone with the road, but with the communities along the line as well. Mr. Smith declared that when a railroad or any utility went into a field and preempted that field eliminating competition, there developed upon that utility a large responsibility and obligation to carry out the service which it started to perform.

Cities and communities are formed and built among these utilities, depending upon them in many cases for a livelihood, and for happiness and prosperity and so it behooves the communities affected to be obligated to the extent of offering aid to that utility when necessary. It was upon this suggestion that it be determined from Mr. Hurst as to whether it was his opinion that the road could obtain enough additional business to make it a paying proposition, if it were in condition physically to handle it, that questions were asked which precipitated the startling statement of Mr. Hurst.

Herbert A. Tucky, chairman of the county patrons' committee and representing Springfield and Sangamon county at the hearing, in giving direct evidence introduced a number of tables showing various phases in the road's operation. These dealt with the potential tonnage of the road of the constantly importance in the worth of the road as a freight and passenger carrier, of the gross earnings of the road from 1895 to 1918, of the net income and deficit in the years in which it existed of the number of tons of rail reloaded, and the number of ties replaced each year since 1895 showing a great decrease, and of the amounts expended for maintenance of way structures and maintenance of equipment over these years, showing a vast falling off, and finally that three new roads had been built into the territory since its inception, which had eaten into the business of the road, but in spite of that fact, the tonnage had steadily increased.

Men representing the other eight counties along the line at the hearing today, who outlined the effects that the abandonment of the road would have on their counties were Menard, Atty. Virgil O. Whipple, Petersburg; Mason, W. E. McFarland, Havana; Peoria, O. B. Eddy of the Peoria Board of Commerce; Cass, R. C. Taylor, Virginia; Tazewell, J. H. Branch, Pekin; Macoupin, R. D. Martin, Palmyra; Madison, C. C. White; Jersey, W. J. Chapman, Jerseyville and Herbert A. Tucky of Springfield.

Haverhorst of the First M. E. church and the young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McDowd, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, who accompanied them to Springfield yesterday morning.

Mr. Ransdell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ransdell of this city. He graduated from Jacksonville high school and later was a student at Illinois College. ## Morgan County's Centenary County Established January 31, 1823 Some Pioneer History

FROM MANUSCRIPTS OF FRANK J. HEINL

In compiling this story of a century ago errors may have crept in and important facts may have been omitted. Suggestions and corrections will be acceptable.

Snakes.

In both forest and prairie, snakes, rattlesnakes of three kinds, black, garter and others, were plentiful and in both were myriads of frogs, toads, lizards and turtles.

Insects.

In summer time both prairie and forest were alive with insects, mosquitoes, hornets, wasps, spiders, flies, knats, moths, beetles, and many others to make life miserable both to man and beast and with them were butterflies, many hued and everywhere.

In the forests were many beehives and for many years the sale of honey and beeswax by the pioneers was large and lucrative.

Bird Life.

Both forest and prairie were congenial to bird life. Many species of game birds which were as numerous at the first coming of the white man as are English sparrows now, are seldom seen today and some are entirely extinct. The destruction of bird life is one of the great crimes of our first century of civilization.

About four hundred species of native birds have been found in Illinois. Of the game birds, perhaps, the most numerous during its migrations was the passenger pigeon. These pigeons were often in such great flocks that they broke the branches of the trees where they lighted, some of the pioneers have said they darkened the earth at times in their flight. They were slaughtered everywhere and often fed to swine. Today, so far as is known, not a single specimen remains.

The wild turkey once plentiful has disappeared from central Illinois as has almost the prairie chicken, which was so numerous in pioneer days.

Great flocks of many species of ducks and geese and many swans frequented the waterways and wet prairies on their migration (some of them raised their young here. Rails, snipe, sandpipers, plovers, killdeer, yellow-legs, dowitchers, woodcock, and other wading birds were plentiful, as were grouse, quail and mourning doves.

The pioneer with his rifle easily secured his meat.

Among the larger birds which were common to the pioneer but which are rare enough now were loons, terns, pelicans, spoonbills, ibis, herons, bitterns, egrets, cranes, ospreys, coots and kites. Turkey vultures, now occasionally seen, were common scavengers. The golden eagle and the bald eagle, now rarely found, were not uncommon.

The smaller native birds which we see today are but a meager representation of the great numbers of their kinds which found homes here a century ago, and there is great danger of many of these species disappearing from central Illinois as have the parakeet, the ivory-billed woodpecker and the pileated woodpecker.

Site of Jacksonville 1819. In the autumn of 1819, one standing on College hill, with his back to Wilson's Grove and the setting sun, would have gazed for miles over a prairie covered with prairie grass as tall as our corn fields in September, moved as in great waves by the wind, spotted and flecked with the gold of sunflowers and golden rod, the white of asters, and the pink of thistles.

To the forests along Maudslayi and Sandy creeks, with scarce a tree in all that sea of prairie, the silence of the solitude disturbed only by the wild birds and animals, the buzzing of insects, the whistling of song birds and the flight of game birds and birds of prey and great flocks of wild pigeons, grackles and crows.

SERVICE-STAR LEGION TO MEET

The Service Star Legion will hold their regular February meeting Thursday at three o'clock with Mrs. R. W. Dodsworth, 164 South East street.

Answer These Important Questions—

Have you ever had cause to doubt that you enjoy perfect vision? Do your eyes feel sore after a spell of close work—aching, smarting, or feeling as if sand or grit was lodged behind the lids? Do you ever, while reading, find that the print suddenly "goes misty" and confused? Is it necessary for you to hold your book or newspaper further away from the eyes than formerly—or do you need stronger light? Do you find that reading or sewing for an extra hour or two causes headaches?

If you have noticed any of these peculiarities with your eyes you should have them carefully examined. Call and see us at once.

Avenues of Service

REGINALD McKENNA, head of the largest bank in the world, says that "Splendid isolation is a dream," a truth which every industrial leader accepts as axiomatic. Had he substituted monopoly for isolation he would have expressed another self-evident truth which would have been acclaimed by every man who has given serious thought to the development of business on a large scale.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a big business striving to do a big job in a big way, yet no thought is given to achieving a monopoly: for those who direct the Company's activities know that in any basic industry such an ambition is impossible of fulfillment. Competition is welcome, for no single organization can hope to serve the people of the Middle West with petroleum products as they should be served. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) enjoys a large volume of business and is satisfied to let this volume take care of its profits.

There is a reciprocal bond between every great industrial organization and the social environment in which it operates. An organization is truly great only when the service it renders is great.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is in daily contact with a community of about 30 million people.

It serves them through a host of useful products refined from petroleum. Through these products it touches the home and industrial life of the people. It enters the sick chamber with mineral oil and petroleum jelly. It enters the factory, the roundhouse, and the farmyard with lubricating oils for machines, engines, and tractors. It seeks the farm home with gasoline, kerosene, candles and parowax. It touches the railroad right of way with Fortnite Long Time Burner Oil for signal lamps; it supplies thousands of public and private garages with gasoline and lubricants. It feeds the furnaces of homes and factories with Stanolind Furnace Oil. It goes to the hospital with Stanolind Surgical Wax. It paves the streets with Stanolind Paving Asphalt.

These are but a few of the avenues of service which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains. To keep these avenues open the Company operates 1700 service stations, 3900 bulk stations, 7000 tank wagons serving thousands of garages, and 6 great refineries to supply their needs.

Thus does the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) acknowledge its reciprocal bond, and by creating a host of useful, essential products from a single basic raw material—crude petroleum—justify its claim to master craftsmanship in industrial husbandry.

Public School Notes

Monthly Teachers Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the teachers in the Jacksonville public schools will be held on Saturday, February 10, at 9 o'clock. In addition to the regular program, provision has been made for a meeting of all the third grade teachers in the city. These teachers will meet in a separate section for the discussion of the different devices used in the teaching of reading in this grade.

A program of visitation is being made out at the office of Superintendent Shafer. This is for the purpose of enabling teachers to go from one room and one school to another and see how other teachers are doing the same work which they are doing in their own class rooms.

Tests Are Given

During this week two standardized tests are being given in the different grade schools of the city. One of these tests is a place test in geography and the other is on the fundamental operations in arithmetic. The latter test is being given only to the third grade students at present, but if it produces satisfactory results the same kind of a test will be given in the other grades.

Such tests as these enable the teachers to compare the achievements of the Jacksonville schools with those of schools in general. They are diagnostic tests and are very valuable instruments in pointing out the weak spots in teaching methods. They also enable each teacher to compare her results with the results of other teachers in the system along the same lines of study.

The usual results of such standard tests is to show that no teacher is superior in all respects, as to teaching methods. Each teacher has weak points as well as strong points in the methods and results of teaching. With this in mind after such tests have been given, the teachers can meet together for conferences of mutual aid in the problems which confront each member of the teaching staff of the schools.

GREEN COUNTY FARMHOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

White Hall, Feb. 6.—Word was brought in from the Smith orchard today, nine miles northwest of White Hall and a mile and a half north of Patterson, to the effect that the two-story residence occupied by Foreman Early Fry was destroyed by fire discovered by Mrs. Fry about 1 o'clock Monday in the upper part of the second story. The tired man had just come onto the premises at the time, and he and Mrs. Fry succeeded in removing the contents. By noon the house was entirely consumed, involving a loss of $4,000, with $3,000 insurance. The structure had been overhauled two years ago, and it was an excellent piece of property, owned by the Thomas Smith Orchard Co.

Further reports from the orchard country of Greene county show that the recent cold snap was more of a benefit than detriment to the apple and fruit crop in general, in retarding the development of blossoms. Today has a snow covering that is protection to the scheduled cold snap as a hind-runner of the one last Sunday.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET

What Does It Mean to 'Have Your Block Ground'

We take the motor out of the chassis and completely disassemble it.

We carefully clean and measure all wearing surfaces.

Cylinder casting goes to grinding machine, a delicate and expensive machine because of its accurately machined moving parts. This must be operated by skilled mechanics.

A typical grinding machine construction is as follows: a diamond grit cutting stone about 3/4 inch wide and 3 inches in diameter, mounted on floating spindle, revolves at high speed at same time slowly moving in circle in plane of rotation. A moving carriage supports cylinder block drawing cylinder over rotating wheel. This mechanism allows operator to accurately adjust circumference of cutting circle to suit bore of cylinder, and successive minute cuts can be taken through cylinder until surface is perfectly round and straight. The final cuts correspond to polishing, leaving surface smooth and mirror-like in appearance.

Fordson

You Will Want Your Fordson Tractor Early

Everything points to the greatest shortage of Ford products this year that has ever existed. Never before has the demand been so great. You will want a Fordson Tractor early—here is one product you cannot wait for—when the weather opens up you will need it. You will want it for plowing, seeding, cultivating—and all your other work. Already it has proved the greatest help to profitable farming that has ever been offered to you. And at $395 f. o. b. Detroit, the price is so low that you lose money every day you are without a Fordson. To get delivery you must order early.

There are no reserve stocks among our dealers—our production capacity, great as it is, will not enable us to build up a reserve. It must be a case of "first come, first served" and the only way in which you can protect yourself is to list your order with a Ford Dealer immediately.

By taking advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery, you will be assured of having your Fordson when you need it.

Market Report

PRICE OF WHEAT
GOES DOWNWARD

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Likelihood of peace between Great Britain and Turkey carried prices downward in the grain markets today.
Wheat closed heavy, ½ to 1½ lower, with May 1.18½ to 1.18, and July 1.13½ to 1.13. Corn lost ½ to 1½ and oats 1 to ½.

In provisions the outcome ranged from 2¢ decline to 12¢ advance.

Wheat showed some weakness at the outset but it was only toward the end of the day that the market underwent a decided fall.
The difference was that during the earlier dealings many traders seemed to be in doubt as to whether peace talk had any substantial basis. Later dispatches received were definite enough to bring about general selling and to leave the market with but little support.

Liberal enlargement of the United States visible supply together with continued absence of new export business acted further as a weight on values in the wheat market. Besides snow was falling over much of the winter wheat belt, and also a return of cold weather was looked for the temperatures were expected to be less severe than was recently the case.

Primary receipts today were smaller than a week ago and as compared with last year's figures.
Notwithstanding that a new high price record for the season was reached in the corn market today by July and September declines in sympathy with wheat were the rule. Adverse crop news from Argentina failed as a counterbalance.

Oats followed corn.
An upturn in the hog market made provisions averaging higher.

THE REV. GEORGE C. WOOD
(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

The passing from Quincy, Ill., day before yesterday, of Mrs. Ross Wood Govert reminds one of the Rev. George C. Wood and family.

The Rev. A. T. Norton, of Alton, published in 1879 a most valuable history of "The Presbyterian Church in Illinois," so far as the churches north of the Wabash Railway were concerned. Among those whom Mr. Norton treated of was Mr. Wood.

Mr. Norton said, in part: "George C. Wood was born in New York City, May 20, 1805. He went to school x x x at Blooming Grove and Newburgh, N. Y. He graduated at Williams College in 1827, and at Auburn Seminary, N. Y., in 1830. x x x From Auburn he started for Missouri, accompanied by Rev. B. P. Hoxsey and others, and after a tedious journey of six weeks, by land and water, in wagons and stages, in steamboats and flatboats, and not very infrequently on foot, he and his company arrived safely in St. Louis, Oct. 20, 1830. I now quote from a letter from Mr. Wood to myself:

"My first field of labor was at St. Charles, Mo. During the two years of my residence there that church was blessed with two precious revivals and from a small beginning became a strong body. The church, however, became divided in the choice of a pastor x x x the influence of that division and strife is felt to this day. Before leaving St. Charles I was prevailed upon by Dr. David Nelson and the Trustee of Marion College, to accept a position in that institution. x x x I labored in Missouri eight years, and during that time, while in St. Charles, I preached steadily to the churches where I was located, and spent much time in destitute places, holding protracted meetings and organizing churches. Some of these are today among the most promising in northern Missouri. In September, 1869, I visited by special invitation, of these churches—that of New Providence. It was on the occasion of the reunion of that church. And what a glorious sight we were permitted to behold. Instead of the little band, thirty-five years before organized into a church we had representatives from five churches who had met to celebrate their mother's birthday. I resided at Manchester, Ill., seven years, and next preached at Winchester and White Hall. At each of these places we were permitted to rejoice in the displays of God's Grace. In 1842 there were added to the church at White Hall forty-five on profession of their faith. At Jerseyville and Greenville, where I afterward labored, we had frequent seasons of spiritual refreshing. I was a member of the Synod of Illinois at its first meeting in Sept. 1831, at Hillsboro, Ill., being then connected with the Presbytery of Missouri."

Mr. Norton continues: "Mr. Wood joined the Presbytery of Alton April 3, 1846. For two or three years he labored in Homer, Michigan. He returned to Illinois and was installed pastor of Greenville church, Bond county, July 23, 1853. He was dismissed from the same, Sept. 26, 1857. Since 1857, he has resided in Jacksonville, Ill., a pleasant home of his own, laboring as Presbyterian Missionary and acting as Stated Clerk of the Illinois Presbytery, then of the Central Synod. For five years before his death he was afflicted with paralysis. Toward the close his sufferings were extreme. x x x He died January 5, 1879. He married Frances Emiline, daughter of Gordon Bulkley, Aug. 3, 1830, at Williamstown, Mass. Henry Hoxsey Wood, son of Mrs. Wood's sister, Mrs. Hoxsey, was born Sept. 17, 1831. x x x He was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Wood as their son. x x x.

His own son, George Gridley Wood, was born Jan. 14, 1842, graduated at Illinois College, 1862, entered the Union army the same year, and died at Memphis, Tenn., aged 21, waiting one month. He was a noble, patriotic Christian young man.

Rosa Frances, Mr. Wood's only daughter, was born Oct. 6, 1843, and married William H. Govert, Esq., State's Attorney, Quincy, Ill., x x x.

Mrs. George C. Wood was born July 31, 1810."

The Goverts
As stated above, Miss Wood was married to Mr. Govert in 1873, Quincy becoming their residence for the rest of their lives.

William H. Govert was born at Ft. Madison, Iowa, in 1844, and was graduated from Illinois college in 1867. He and George Gridley Wood were members of Phi Alpha Society, in college.

Mr. and Mrs. Govert were the parents of George W. Govert, Mrs. G. H. Earhart and Mrs. Boyd Castle. George W. was graduated from Illinois college in 1895, and was a Phi Alpha. His son George is now a student at Illinois.

George W. Govert became a lawyer with his father, and succeeded him in business.

William H. Govert became associated in his profession with the Hon. Joseph N. Carter, a classmate at Illinois college, and a Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, who preceded Mr. Govert some years in death. He, too, was a Phi Alpha, and a Union soldier.

Mr. William H. Govert died December 7, 1921, in Quincy, after an unusually successful career at the bar, and having become one of the leading business men of the Gem City. He was interested in, and an official in several business enterprises and had secured much more than a competency. In religious matters Mr. Govert was a Presbyterian, and a Liberal one in his organization. He was a prominent Mason. In politics he was a Democrat, and served the city four years, and the county eight years as Attorney.

Mrs. Govert.
Mrs. Govert was a woman of bright mind, and took a fine position in society and church work.

Mr. George C. Wood's family were members of Westminster church here. Mrs. Govert was a member of it in her young days. The family began with it in 1860, and Mrs. Govert attended her father's church in Quincy.

INCOME TAX FACTS
No. 9
Under certain conditions living quarters, food, clothing, etc., provided employees are not regarded as income. Where, for example, because of the location and nature of the work it is necessary that employees engaged in fishing, logging, or canning be furnished board and lodging by their employer such board and lodging are considered as contributed for the convenience of the employer. Therefore, its value need not be included in computing the net income of the employee. The rule applies to board and lodging furnished the seamen.

The value of board and lodging furnished hospital employees is to be returned as income unless the employee is subject to duty at any time during the 24 hours of a day and therefore is required to accept quarters and meals at the hospitals in addition to his regular compensation.

The rental of a dwelling "and appurtenances thereof" furnished a minister of the gospel was exempted by the revenue act of 1921, and no longer needs to be included in gross income.

Certain items, as shown on forms for making the returns, are specifically exempt from the income tax, such as proceeds of life insurance policies, amounts received thru accident or health insurance, value of property acquired by gift, descent, or devise, interest received on State and certain Federal bonds, amounts received as compensation, family allotments and allowances under the provisions of the war risk insurance and vocational rehabilitation acts, pensions for military or naval service in time of war, etc.

The Mound Woman's Country Club will meet Thursday afternoon, February 8th, with Mrs. J. W. Clary at her home on West North street.

AT DEATH'S DOOR
"Ten years of stomach trouble reduced me to a living skeleton. I had attacks of pain that doubled me up like a jack-knife and I was as yellow as a gold piece. No medicine or doctors helped me and was really at death's door. A lodge brother advised me to try Mays' Wonderful Remedy, and I found it to be the only medicine to touch my case." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.—Adv.
